Williston, VT - The Stern Center for Language and Learning offers Vermont's only Orton Gillingham Associate Level course. Inaugural classes will be held from June 21-24 & 28-30, followed by an additional 15 hours of coursework and 100 hours of supervised practicum during the school year under the guidance of OG fellows. Trainees are responsible for maintaining and developing a professional portfolio. Graduate credit is available.

The Orton Gillingham approach is biologically and linguistically sound, diagnostic and prescriptive, structured, yet flexible, designed for the teacher who will work to individualize instruction to meet the intensive needs of struggling language learners.

For more information please contact Janna Osman josman@sterncenter.org or 802 878-2332.

The Stern Center for Language and Learning is dedicated to literacy for all. Many people who struggle with reading, writing, and mathematics do not learn the same way as those who easily achieve literacy. Stern Center professionals evaluate and teach all kinds of learners, including those with learning disabilities such as dyslexia or attention deficit disorders. The Stern Center is committed to helping individuals identify their learning strengths as well as their needs and to finding solutions that allow everyone to learn. More information available at www.sterncenter.org.
