Osman Invited to Meet with Expert Panel

Williston, VT – Janna Osman, M.Ed., Program Director for Professional Learning at the Stern Center for Language and Learning was invited by Karin Hess, Senior Assessment Director for the Center for Assessment to meet with an expert panel of English Language Arts (ELA), teachers in Washington, D.C. The goal for May meeting was to develop a draft framework of research-based ELA instruction with common standards for curriculum development across states.

The non-profit Stern Center for Language and Learning is dedicated to literacy for all. Many people who struggle with reading, writing, and mathematics do not learn the same way as those who easily achieve literacy. Stern Center professionals evaluate and teach all kinds of learners, including those with learning disabilities such as dyslexia or attention deficit disorders. The Stern Center is committed to helping individuals identify their learning strengths as well as their needs and to finding solutions that allow everyone to learn.
