The Stern Center for Language and Learning Announces the Election of 3 New Members to its Board of Directors

Williston, VT - - The Stern Center for Language and Learning, a nonprofit learning center with locations in Williston and White River Junction, elected the following new members to its Board of Directors during its Annual Meeting on October 7, 2011:

Ruthann Hackett, B.S., Elementary Ed., is Program Coordinator for the United Way Volunteer Connection. She currently serves as House Corp. Vice President for Eta Chapter Delta Delta Delta Sorority, was previously an Event Volunteer for the National MS Society, and was a board member for the Vermont Hunter Jumper Association. Presently she serves on the Stern Center Special Events Committee. She resides in Charlotte.

Ellie Kenworthy, M.Ed., is Finance Administrator for Paul Kenworthy, DMD, PC. In the past she has served on the Burlington Development Review Board and the Zoning Board of Adjustment, the Fletcher Allen Health Care Board of Associates, and was a board member for the Burlington Boys and Girls Club. Presently she serves on the Stern Center Special Events Committee. She resides in Burlington.

Justin Molson has served as a guest member on the Stern Center Scholarship Committee for the past two years and has assisted with Stern Center events. He shares his sincere devotion to the Stern Center mission with his wife Julia, a psychologist who has worked for the Stern Center for more than 10 years. He resides in Jericho.

The non-profit Stern Center for Language and Learning is dedicated to learning for all as we recognize that all great minds don't think alike. The Stern Center is committed to helping individuals identify their learning strengths and needs as well as to finding solutions that allow everyone to learn. Through evaluations, instruction, professional learning, and research, children and adults learn about themselves and are better equipped to reach their full potential. Scholarships are available. More information may be found at www.sterncenter.org.
